

Please keep the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. It has been nice not receiving so many unwanted calls. I used to talk to more telemarketers than I did my family. That is ridiculous. If I am interested in any products or services, I will call them. There is no need to be bothered for something I am not interested in.